

Halifax 1st July 1762.

Sir,
I received your Two Letters of the 21st April and 12th May, and your Notes of April 3rd May and 16th June, with their several Inclosures.

Your Recommendation of Mr. Thomas Hendry had my immediate regard, and he is now upon a Tour to Cobeguid, with a view of fixing himself in that Settlement, where the Barley you Consigned has been received, the Expence shall be paid to Your Agent, upon his tendering your Account for that purpose.

I am to express my Obligations for your kind Present of Bulbous Roots, Rose & Dutch Money Suckle, which will afford an Agreeable Ornament to my Garden.

Mr. Belcher's Compliments and mine attend you and Your Lady, and I am.

Honorable Sir, Your Most Obedient Humble Servant.

You will favor me in causing the inclosed Letter to be Dispatched to Major General Amherst.

J. Belcher

The Hon^{ble} Thomas Hancock Esq^r.

Hon^{ble} Mr. Belcher?
